Installation-2

The screenshot shows the PAROC Calculus website's user account creation page. The page has a grey header with the PAROC logo and the word 'Calculus'. Below the header is a 'Home' button. The main content area is titled 'User account' and contains three buttons: 'Create new account', 'Log in', and 'Request new password'. Below these buttons are several input fields, each with a red asterisk indicating it is required: 'First name', 'Last name', 'Company', 'Address', 'City', 'Country', 'Username', and 'E-mail address'. Below the 'E-mail address' field, there is a small text note: 'Spaces are allowed; punctuation is not allowed except for periods, hyphens, apostrophes, and underscores.' At the bottom of the form is a 'Create new account' button.

Fill in your details and email address. The email address will be used in contact with you.

Installation-3

The screenshot shows the PAROC website interface. At the top left is the PAROC logo, and to its right is the word "Calculus". Below the logo is a "Home" button. A green notification box contains a checkmark and the text: "Thank you for applying for an account. Your account is currently pending approval by the site administrator. In the meantime, a welcome message with further instructions has been sent to your e-mail address." Below this is another "Home" link. On the left side, there is a "User login" section with "Username *" and "Password *" labels, each followed by an input field. Below the input fields are two links: "Create new account" and "Request new password". At the bottom of the login section is a "Log in" button. On the right side, the text reads: "Thank you for your registration. You will receive a new email with a temporary link to your account within a few days after Paroc has accepted your account request."

You are now registered and will receive an email with further instructions.
